

Central Coast Family Care Medical Associates, Inc.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Our Commitment to Your Privacy

Central Coast Family Care Medical Associates, Inc. is committed to protecting the privacy of health information. We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information (PHI), provide you with this Notice of Privacy Practices (Notice) of our legal duties and privacy practices regarding your PHI, and follow the terms of the Notice currently in effect

This Notice tells you about the ways in which we may use and disclose health information about you. It also describes your rights and certain obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of your health information.

The privacy practices described in this Notice will be followed by all members of the workforce at Central Coast Family Care Medical Associates, Inc., including health care professionals, employees, trainees, students, and volunteers. Additionally, third parties (“business associates”) that provide services on our behalf will be required to comply with all applicable provisions.

How We May Use and Disclose Health Information About You

The following sections describe different ways we may use and disclose your health information. We abide by all applicable laws related to the protection of this information. Not every use or disclosure is listed. All of the ways we are permitted to use and disclose health information, however, will fall within one of the following categories:

Treatment.

We may use and disclose your health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your healthcare and related services. This includes consultation with other healthcare providers regarding your treatment and referral to another provider. For example, your primary care physician may share your health information with a specialist to coordinate your care.

Payment.

We may use and disclose your health information to obtain payment for services we provide. This includes billing activities, claims management, and collection activities. For example, we may send claims to your health insurance company containing certain health information to obtain payment for services we provided.

Healthcare Operations.

We may use and disclose your health information for our healthcare operations, which include internal administration and planning and various activities that improve the quality and cost-effectiveness of care. For example, we may use health information to evaluate the performance of our staff, assess the quality of care, or conduct training programs.

Other Uses and Disclosures We May Make Without Your Authorization:

As Required by Law. We may disclose health information when required by federal, state, or local law.

- Law Enforcement. We may disclose health information to law enforcement officials for law enforcement purposes as permitted by law.
- Coroners, Medical Examiners, and Funeral Directors. We may disclose health information to coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors to carry out their duties.
- Organ and Tissue Donation. We may disclose health information to organizations involved in the procurement, banking, or transplantation of organs, eyes, or tissue.
- Research. We may use or disclose health information for research purposes when an institutional review board or privacy board has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your information.
- To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may use or disclose health information when necessary to prevent a serious threat to the health or safety of you, another person, or the public.
- Specialized Government Functions. We may disclose health information for military, national security, protective services, or correctional institution purposes as authorized by law.
- Workers' Compensation. We may disclose health information as authorized by workers' compensation laws. • Unless you say no, to anyone involved in your care or payment for your care, such as a friend, family member, or any individual you identify.

Substance Abuse Treatment.

We are required to protect the privacy and security of your substance use disorder patient records in accordance with 42 U.S.C. § 290dd-2 and 42 C.F.R. Part 2, the Confidentiality of Substance Use Disorder Patient Records ("Part 2"), in addition to HIPAA and applicable state law. In a civil, criminal, administrative, or legislative proceeding against an individual, we will not use or share information about your SUD treatment records unless a court order requires us to do so (after notice and an opportunity to be heard is provided to you, as provided in 42 CFR part 2) or you give us your written permission. You may report suspected violations to the U.S. Attorney for the judicial district in which the violation occurs.

Suspected violations by an opioid treatment program may be reported to the Substance Use and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), Opioid Treatment Program Compliance Office by phone at 204-276-2700 or online at OTP-extranet@opiod.samhsa.gov.

Uses and Disclosures That Require Your Written Authorization:

We will obtain your written authorization before using or disclosing your health information for purposes other than those described above. Specifically, we will obtain your authorization before using or disclosing:

- Psychotherapy notes (with limited exceptions)
- Health information for marketing purposes
- Health information in a manner that constitutes a sale of PHI

Additionally, with certain limited exceptions, we are not allowed to sell or receive anything of value in exchange for your health information without your written authorization. If you provide us with authorization to use or disclose your health information about you, you may revoke your authorization, in writing, at any time.

However, uses and disclosures made before the revocation of your authorization are not affected by your action and we cannot take back any disclosures we may have already made with your authorization or that may have been made on reliance of your authorization.

Use of unsecure electronic communications.

If you choose to communicate with us via unsecure electronic communications, such as regular email or text message, we may respond to you in the same manner in which the communication was received and to the same email address or account from which you sent your original communication.

In addition, if you provide your email address or cell phone number to a health care provider, we may send you emails or text messages related to appointment reminders, surveys, or other general informational communications. For your convenience, these messages may be sent unencrypted.

Before using or agreeing to use of any unsecure electronic communication to communicate with us, note that there are certain risks, such as interception by others, misaddressed/misdirected messages, shared accounts, messages forwarded to others, or messages stored on unsecured, portable electronic devices.

By choosing to correspond with us via unsecure electronic communication, you are acknowledging and agreeing to accept these risks. Additionally, you should understand that the use of email or other electronic communications is not intended to be a substitute for professional medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment.

Your Rights Regarding Your Health Information
